LAST LETTERS.

A Vienna paper prints the latest letters of the executed Nihilists. The letter of Sophie Picoeffsky is addressed to her mother who lives in Paris. It is very short and does not ask her forgiveness, because the mother entertains the same political opinions as her daughter. In reference to her father Sophie writes as follows:

I do not ask the forgiveness of father, because I know he would never grant it.

Kibalschitz writes to his brother the following:

The die is cast; nothing can be changed. Bear, like myself, with philosophical resignation, what inexorable fate has bestowed upon me. I am a victim of the historic development of the condition of our country. I have done only that which I could not abstain from doing. During the last two weeks my mind has received most terrible impressions, but everything draws to a close now. I am quiet and composed; they can do only with me what history ordained I should suffer.

Jeliasoff wrote to his sister:

Within a short space of time I shall be there, where moans and lamentations are unknown. It has been my honest endeavor on earth that among the living less of moans and lamentations might be heard. This has been my sole object in life. For this object I have sacrificed everything. I am going to the other world, where God will be Judge. If He should be my defender, if He should not condemn my acts, what will be the fate of those judges on earth who have sentenced me to death? What a shame, what a punishment must be their lot!

THE STATE FAIR.

An impression is out that the present Trustees of the N. S. A. M. & M. S. have only to resign in order that their places may be filled by others. We are informed that the present Trustees have not formally accepted any position of the kind, and do not propose to, unless the people show a proper spirit in furtherance of the State Fair enterprise. We can not see but what the present board is entirely competent, and the reason for any suggestion of a change is certainly not apparent. The GAZETTE merely desires that a successful Fair may be held, and can not see why one man can be expected to put up for himself and neighbors. Any suggestion that we desire to express the opinion of one man or five men is merely a gratuitous lie, made out of poor cloth.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Chicago Times dishes up the late Senator Platt in the following caustic fashion: "Lord Roscoe had a little lamb, it's name was Tommy Platt, and when Lord Roscoe rose to go, the lamb no longer sat. It followed him from school one day, it was Lord Roscoe's rule, and why it did it all can see, it was a little fool. 'What makes the lamb love Roscoe so?' the togs all did cry; 'because Lord Roscoe lams the lamb,' the knowing did reply. And poor little Tommy Platt doth run about and bleat, for, having loved Lord Roscoe so, its lost the public test.

The Committees that have produced the revised New Testament presents a wide variety of denominational belief. The English Committee of 25 members is made up of 10 Anglicans, 2 Presbyterians, 1 Congregationalist, 1 Unitarian, 4 Episcopals, 2 Presbyterians, 1 Methodist, 1 Friend and 1 Baptist.

The present ruler of Abyssinia, King John, has banished all the missionaries who have arrived at Massowah, and under the influence of the Bishop and priests of the Church of Abyssinia, he has caused search to be made in the huts of the people for Bibles. Whenever any were found the owners were loaded with chains and cast into prison, and their homes burned down.

The El Paso, N. M., Herald says that when the construction train of the Southern Pacific Railroad came thundering into that town for the first time, with its great boarding house cars, water tanks, and blacksmith shops and pile drivers, the Mexican women, who had never seen such a sight before, seized their little children and fled in fear.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

CALIFORNIA.

Henry Stewart was accidentally shot in the neck by Jeff Verlaque last Sunday at San Diego.

Yesterday afternoon, in Corintha Valley, Colusa, an eight-year-old boy named Stotts, was killed by a horse.

The Central Pacific baggage-room at Auburn was broken into Thursday night by parties who carried off and rifled a trunk belonging to J. Putnam. Three Chinamen were arrested.

Thursday morning, as a man named McCarty, employed in the Rainbow quartz mine at Chippa Flat, Sierra county, was being hauled to the surface he faltered and fell out of the bucket to the bottom of the shaft, a distance of 150 feet.

A man by the name of McCarty committed suicide at the Hotel del Monte, Monterey, June 24, by shooting himself. He registered by the name of Gray. He was about 62 years of age, and left a note stating that his mining property in Colorado would pay expenses.

OREGON.

John Badollet, a member of a prominent salmon packing firm on the Lower Columbia, died at his home in Astoria, Thursday night.

Two brothers named Vinzan, members of the Lake county Regulators, are charged with stealing cattle and making an assault with a dangerous weapon.

A California stock dealer, Dr. Dixon, is said to have been arrested at Lakeview, Lake county, and held under $300 bonds, charged with stealing cattle.

J. W. Holmes, arrested at Portland last week on a charge of horse stealing in Yakima county, W. T., has been held to await the action of the Grand Jury, and is in jail.

Judge Westcott, of Washington county, was seriously injured Thursday by getting caught under a falling tree. His shoulder was crushed and several ribs were fractured.

TERRITORIAL.

Mrs. Tom Corrigan committed suicide in Tombstone, A. T. last Sunday night.

The First National Bank of El Paso, New Mexico, has just been organized with a capital of $50,000.

The Tombstone, A. T., Union publishes the total shipment of bullion for May at $481,803, an increase of $51,000 over April.

T. F. Lawlor, brakeman on the Northern Pacific, while uncoupling a coal car at Corbando, W. T., fell upon the track and was killed, Wednesday. He leaves a wife and three children in San Francisco.

At Tombstone, A. T., yesterday, Clark and Field, two opposing land title magnates, had a free fight in a restaurant. The latter was cut on the head by a tumbler, thrown. Friends interfered before pistols came in play. Clark was fined $25.

NEVADA.

The small-pox scare is about over, and the school attendance is increasing in Gold Hill.

The Carson schools will close on the tenth of this month, so it is reported.

The Lyon Co. Times says: Sam Longbaugh, of Empire, passed through last Wednesday over the C. & C. He has a wood drive of 7,000 cords to take out at Empire next week. He will send 4,000 cords of the drive to the Lyon Mill at this place.

Selections.

But words are thine, and a small drop of ink falling like dew, upon a thought, produces that which makes thousands, perhaps millions think.—Byron.

Choose such pleasures as recreate much but cost little.

Love, faith, patience—the three essentials to a happy life.

The world is satisfied with words; few care to dive beneath the surface. A man cannot do good nor evil to others without doing good or evil to himself.

The faith which looks forward is far richer than the experience which looks backward.

There is a past which is gone forever; but there is a future which is still our own.

If we should leave out of conversation scandal, go-sip, common-places, fatuity—what silence!

Only what we have wrought into our characters during life can we take away with us.

The New Rome.

There is to-day, at one end of Old Rome, a new Rome which has nothing in common with the Rome which presents itself to the mind at the mention of the Imperial city. It is modern Rome, a city of idiotic splendor. It consists of long, straight streets, bordered by high houses, built all in the same monotonous style, and with water and gas on each floor. Yet everybody admires the dull, commonplace, comfortable new Rome, and wants to live there. Already an immense Continental Hotel is being built in this new section of the city, where everything breathes of the nineteenth century and the year 1881.

A Korean convert is translating the New Testament and Pilgrim's Progress into his native language.

ROUND ABOUT.

During May, 6,600 immigrants arrived at Montreal.

Mayor Kallbach is visiting his old home in Rockland, Maine.

The losses to Iowa farmers this year from poor seed will amount to $2,000,000.

By an explosion of dynamite, June 3d, at Low Moore, Virginia, four colored men were fatally injured.

Ben Jones (colored) was hanged June 3d, in Charleston, S. C., for the murder of David Merriweather Howell.

June 2d a thunderbolt killed Henry Meman, his wife and a horse. They were driving home near Desplains, Illinois.

John Berry, for years principal of a public school in Buffalo, has killed himself. He leaves a wife and two children.

The will of the late Thomas A. Scott has been admitted to probate. It contains minute provisions for his family and relatives.

The ten-year-old son of Michael Hillberger killed another boy, son of Henry Stacker, June 3d, at Lancaster, Ohio, by stabbing him.

General Diaz has resigned the Public Works portfolio of Mexico. He may go to France, or be elected Governor of Oaxaca. General Paezco replaces him.

The man supposed to be Lee Nelson, who murdered James Barnes at Minisota, Texas, was arrested June 3. He claimed to be a business man from California.

Elijah Sterling, Crisfield, N. J., claiming to be the son of God, attacked his wife and son with an axe. The son escaped, but the wife was fatally hurt.

Colonel Dwight Webb fell down stairs in Jersey City, June 3rd, and was killed. He will be buried in the Potter's field. He has been twice a Congressman from Michigan.

The Board of Managers of the American Bible Society have divided the field known as "China and Japan." Dr. Gullick, who has had charge heretofore, was assigned to China, and Rev. Henry Loomis to Japan.

Not only does all life have its poetry, but in that very poetry may be found the best, the fullest and sweetest parts of life. He will discover it who is himself true and brave, faithful and patient, earnest and loving; and of such a one it may be truly said, "His life is a poem."

Lord Bacon made a capital estimate of what sermons should be when he said: "Wines which at first tread gently, are pleasant to those which are forced out of the wine-press, for these taste of tone and the husk of the grape; so those doctrines are exceedingly wholesome and sweet which flow from the Scriptures, gently pressed, and are not wreathed into controversies and commonplaces."

RELIGIOUS.

The people of Tapteua, one of the Gilbert Islands, have gathered together all their weapons of war and burned them.

The "Congregational Year Book" reports that the living ministers are 2,577 in number, and there are 136 foreign missionaries.

The chief priest of the Chion temple at Kioto is so alarmed at the spread of Christianity that he has drawn up a memoir against it.

Rev. W. F. Bainbridge, while on a recent tour of visitation to the various Protestant missionary stations of the world, journeyed more than 50,000 miles and met more than 1,000 missionaries.

The Archbishop of Mexico, Mexico, has issued an edict that Catholics must not join any Protestant sect, receive any Protestant books, do any work for Protestants, or receive any gift from them, under penalty of excommunication.

In Oliver Cromwell's time $38,000 was raised for the Waldensians, who were for so many generations persecuted to the death. Of this sum $16,000 was left in the hands of the English Government, who to-day pay £287 annually to the Waldensian Church.

From China we have accounts of long journeys by members of the China Inland Mission into little-known parts of the Empire. Among them are those of two women missionaries who set out alone and arrived in safety at Hanchung-fu in Shensi—a feat which would have been impossible a few years ago.

The Missionary Review says there are 10,000,000 persons, in 50 American churches and branches of denominations, giving $3,500,000 per year for foreign mission work, in which 695 ordained missionaries are employed. These foreign missions have 177,783 native communicants, and have gained 19,165 converts in 1878-9.

The General Missionary Convention of American Baptists was organized in 1814, in Philadelphia. Up to 1832, this body carried on missions among the Indians of North America. Then the Home Mission Society was organized. The income for the Missionary Union for the year 1880-1 was $288,802, contributed by 700,000 Baptists.

What Dr. Gardner Says:

TOLDO, Ohio, January 1, 1878. The California Fruit Growers Association, gentlemen: Please send immediately one gross of your Pine and Eucalyptus Fruit Pliers. I have been using them in my practice for the past three months and find their effect most wonderful, especially in the treatment of all sections of the spine and kidneys. In my judgment they are far superior to any Fruit Pliers manufactured. I can conscientiously recommend them to my professional brethren.

NEW TO-DAY.

ABOUT SOLES!

SOME PEOPLE THINK THEY HAVE no soles; all the rest think they have soles. New-papemen educate the people and have intelligent soles. Fishmongers have "stinking soles." Some (I mean men with the best-boots and candle-light think they can do so; but neither ignores the doctrine of eternal damnation and says it's questionable "about the existence of soles." Subscribers who pay punctual for the GAZETTE have large soles while the delinquents have small soles, and the cowards have no soles at all. We will get their pay that is why of course—the result of this soles. I only who take their boots to WATSON'S ON THE PLAZA, have prime soles; if they take them elsewhere they have poor soles. I any one thinks they have no soles, come to me. I will furnish you two good soles—two-legged men a specialty. I will make you like other folks by supplying you with a good double sole. I, S. J. Watson, of fourththought, who put so much confidence in appearance, would do well to call early and have them fixed up; there are so many of that class doing in their boots. J. J. WATSON.

Alvaro Evans passed through Winnemucca Saturday on his way to Clover valley.

Geo. M. Mott of H. S. Crocker & Co., Sacramento, is in Reno, and will continue his travels in the morning.

Mrs. See, Glenbrook, went to join her brother's family in the east this morning. The lady goes in search of health.

J. G. Paul and Jake Paul passed through Reno recently for St. Elmo, southern Colorado. They will engage in mining there.

Keep Your Door Locked.

On Saturday night last the residence of A. J. Clark was entered by some lawless persons, who proceeded to appropriate the silver-ware on the table. The thieves got away with considerable plunder, but in their haste took only the top of a silver butter dish, and Mrs. Clark says that if the thief will return he can have the other part, and no questions asked.

A Gentleman in High Station.

Some visitors from Reno who attended the Pioneer Picnic desired to go through the Capitol building. The rooms were locked, but they met a gentleman in the hall who enquired what they wanted. This person, who was a stranger to the visitors, procured keys and acted as escort to the party throughout the Capitol building. They were delighted at their treatment and thought that their guide was evidently hired for that purpose. They were much surprised afterwards to learn that they were attended by Judge O. R. Leonard, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Nevada. Comment is unnecessary, but the Reno men can not cease talking about the learned gentleman and his goodness. Judge Leonard might well be proud of the impression which his natural courtesy has produced among strangers.

Nevada & Oregon.

The GAZETTE is informed that track laying was re-commenced this morning with all the force which can be used. The first five miles will be completed ready for a train of cars by June 15th, and work on the second section of five miles will be commenced. Engineer McClellan and assistants are now engaged in the work of adjusting the line on the second section.

There are 75 men engaged in the work of track laying and 135 employed in grading.

Verdon Verlan.

Hon. J. P. Foulkes, of Essex, is in town. He has lately bought the Col-dren place and is rebuilding the house. A section of his mill dam broke away yesterday and a force of men is now working on the necessary repairs. Foulkes has been frozen to make his home in Reno for years, but every week somebody gets his confidence, makes him buy another ranch at Verdi and thus detains him in the wood region. Foulkes is evidently an emigrant.

Facing the Music.

County Commissioner Warren J. Sheridan, who has been accused during his absence in Arizona of official misconduct, returned to the Comstock yesterday to learn what they have to say about it. Assessor P. J. Dunne came down to meet him. Sheridan has many friends in Nevada and none of them can believe that he stole $78 worth of dry goods on such slight provocation as is assigned by the Grand Jury.

Washoe Wood.

The three hoppers in Washoe valley are all running under full pressure. P. N. Marker will flame about 10,000 cords, W. E. Price will land 7,000 cords at the dump, and the Colonel estimates that the Water Company will handle 100,000 cords. This estimate is no doubt too high.

PIONEER PICNIC.

A Slim Attendance and a Good Program—The Races.

The annual reunion of the "old boys" was not as well attended as in former years. Various reasons are assigned for this, but no one believes that it was owing to any lack of friendship for the society or confidence in the yearly fete. Those who did attend passed a merry day, and found that every precaution had been taken for their comfort. In the trotting race there were four entries; Winston, Downer, Carson Stallion and Bald Hornet. Bald Hornet, Reno's representative, broke very badly and was distanced on the first heat. Winston won the race and first money—time, 3.01 1/2 and 2.44. Downer second and Carson Stallion third. The running race, dash of one mile, brought four starters to the pole. Bullet Box, Dic-Box, Bath's mare and Slocum's saddle horse. Bradley's Bullet Box, of Reno, won easily in 2.01. The other attractions on the programme were liberally patronized, and the first general picnic was a success at least in point of excellence in the programme.

Man and Mare.

On Monday, May 30th, a mare was stolen from R. Keener, who lives four miles from Colfax, Nevada county, Cal. Mr. Keener missed a neighbor named White at about the same time, and did not think to connect the two circumstances. Whoever took the mare went about a mile from Keener's, left the mare's colt and stole a saddle. On Friday last Constable Avery found the mare in question, and traced her ownership to Mr. White. The description was defective, however, and Avery shadowed his man until this morning, when Keener arrived and identified both his neighbor and the lost horse. White telegraphed yesterday for his wife to sell her cow, and come here immediately. The Colfax constable will come immediately, and take the accused man back to his native clime.

Improvements.

The work of tearing down and rebuilding the Palace Hotel is going forward rapidly. The building will be newly-modeled in front, and will be 36x100 feet. The restaurant will be on the west side, and 17x100 feet. Next on the east comes the stairway, and then the bar-room and office. This last room will contain a bar 20 feet in length, two billiard tables, two club rooms, and the tiger will be perched upon his half-story roost in the rear end. There will be a 4 ft. 6-inch entrance on Centre street, and the old doors will be taken out and replaced by plate-glass substitutes. The upper story will be entirely re-modeled to secure light, ventilation, bathing facilities, closets, etc. The Palace will be a first-class institution in about four weeks.

Washoe Valley Crops.

The hoppers have destroyed 60 acres of grain for Joe Frey. The ranches at the lower end of Washoe Lake are looking well although considerably behind the crops on the meadows. At the upper end a great many farms have been devastated by the pest. Nobody has had the courage to break up any new ground during this year. The fruit crop promises well in Washoe valley. Many trees which did not bear last year, are loaded this season, and the bearing trees are remarkable for the luscious load which they carry.

Home Industry.

The new Pacific Brewery in Reno is turning out a first-class article. Geo. Becker reports the trade as increasing beyond his expectations. The new beer has now reached a point where it cannot be distinguished from Sacramento, and that is justly considered a very high compliment to the new brew. George lately sent sixty gallons to Wadswoth in one day and received a telegram two days after for more. There is no need of paying freight on beer now.

Good News.

Dr. Alon Dawson has gone to California on private business. He will take occasion to visit Napa, Stockton, San Francisco and other points of interest to professional men before his return.

Premium Pioneer.

Lawyer Cain is pluming himself just now over the fact that the Reno cord of the Pioneer excursion came out $33 ahead. It was all due to Cain's rustling. As a V. P. he has acquitted himself nobly.

JOTTINGS.

"Two Orphans."

Don't forget the Claxton.

Blakely has Figaro and others.

"The Two Orphans" at the Nevada Theatre to-night.

Avancino is turning his grass crop under and planting potatoes.

The Colonel remarks: — Picnic.

The mills at Ophir and in the Washoe Canyon are working busily on railings.

"Red Cross" is in town on the Esberg and Bachman layout. Two-bit riggers for a bit. Yum.

The Monte Diablo mine next to the Northern Belle, has risen from $5 1/2 to $8 1/2 within four days.

The International is making a name as Reno's cheap hotel. It is comfortable as well as cheap.

Chase & Ties have seen the plastering and the first coat of whitening put on their addition.

An interesting article on the "immortality of the soul" will be found under the head of New To-day.

Dr. H. H. Hogan will attend to the practice of Dr. A. Dawson, during the latter's absence in California.

A house with ten rooms, hard-finished; good location, can be bought at this office for what it is insured for.

People will avoid danger of fire and possibly trouble by discontinuing the practice of throwing coals into the alley.

Hawthorne is rapidly becoming a great freight-shipping center. Freight is now being sent from there in all directions.

Susanville will celebrate July 4th in fine style and $150 worth of fireworks has been ordered from E. A. Allen, Reno.

Croquet has broken out in Wadswoth and is raging fiercely. The Wadswoth foot is pretty and must be shown.

Frank Bell has received a bible with the fixtures of the Empire telegraph office. This supplies a long-felt want in the local telegraph office.

J. C. Harl, Mayor of the lower Meadows, was in town on Saturday, and says he has no hoppers, but potatoes large enough to supply a small family.

"Now for instance," said he, "I've traveled all over this coast and sampled 'em all. I've been from M. do county to San Diego and I can't find a place where they suit me so well as at Bechtel's Oasis on Virginia street."

A Word to the Wise.

There is nothing like harmony of bearing and consistency in dress. The Claxton Combination will appear at the theatre to-night, and it is said to be a first-class troupe. There are first-class critics in Reno, and they should all go in first-class clothes. The only way in which these various essentials can be blended is by going to the White House. Reno's first-class clothing emporium.

Masonic Building.

The Masons will be obliged to defer the letting of the contract for the addition to their building. They find that Mr. Hoole made the plan without reference to the old building, and this makes a re-arrangement of the plan necessary. Bidders will be notified when the plans have been amended.

Frying Pests.

C. W. Perry, agent of an eastern firm for the supply of Agricultural implements, affirms that since the hoppers have been invading houses in Reno he has noticed them very closely. They jump up on his ledger to see who has bought a mower from him and that also tells them where they can get a square meal.

May Pay-Rolls.

The pay-rolls for May for the following-named companies are: Union shaft, $22,008 75; Utah, $5,189 75; Consolidated Virginia, California and C. & C. shaft, $28,489; New Wells-Fargo, $2,450; Ophir, Mexican and Union Consolidated, $19,482.

Cheap Reading.

E. A. Allen has established a circulating library. All of the standard and recent works can be read by members of this library at a small cost merely for the use of the book.

C. L. S. C.

The Chataqua Literary and Scientific Circle will meet this evening at Mrs. J. E. Simpson's residence on North Virginia street.

BY TELEGRAPH.

The Empty Tomb.

ALBANY, June 4.

The stories about a disagreement between Governor Cornell and ex-Senator Platt are untrue.

New York, June 4.

A Tribune Albany special says: Twenty-four hours ago the air was full of predictions that Cornell would be one of the two Senators, but a change came this morning. The Governor's vote halted and dropped a little, and both sides are awaiting developments respecting his future course. The coolest judges among the Administration men believe that one of the two Senators will have to be a stalwart, to satisfy the larger stalwart element among the men who are refusing to vote for Conkling, and they have a kindly feeling toward Cornell.

Platt's Opinion.

NEW YORK, June 4.

Ex-Senator Platt said this evening that he and Conkling had talked over the situation with their friends. He gave it as his opinion that there would be a long deadlock in the Senate, which would only be terminated by adjournment.

Another Deadlock.

NEW YORK, June 5.

A Tribune Albany special says: The best judges among the Administration leaders believe that Conkling's whole aim is to prevent a choice by this Legislature; that well-informed Administration men claim to have positive evidence that he has been continuing his overtures to Democrats during the past week in spite of all the coldness they have shown him.

Fatal Bar-Room Quarrel.

PORTLAND, June 5.

J. Bryant and Samuel Haas, brothers-in-law, while in a saloon in Dayton, Yamhill county, engaged in drinking, got into an altercation, resulting in Haas being stabbed several times by Bryant from the effects of which he died Saturday afternoon. The quarrel is said, originated out of domestic troubles. Bryant is in custody.

MIST-AM CAR.

A Man Whose Name Nearly Procured Him a Wound Instead of a Remedy.

An excited man rang the door bell at John F. Myers' well-known drug store last night.

"What's the matter?" said John.

"Open the door."

"Who are you?" said the drowsy druggist.

"Missed a car."

"Well, I don't care a continental if you missed three," said John as he retired.

Presently the bell rang violently again.

"What's wanted?" asked the ever ready purveyor.

"Missed a car," was the answer.

"Well, what do suppose I care if you missed a whole train of 'em. I'll take a shot at you if you don't clear out."

"Yes, but I want a prescription. My name is Mist-er Carr."

"Well," said Myers, "Why didn't you say so?"

There is perhaps no tonic offered to the people that possesses so much real intrinsic value as the Hop Bitters. Just at this season of the year, when the stomach needs an appetizer, or the blood needs purifying, the cheapest and best remedy in Hop Bitters. A course of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Don't wait until you are prostrated by disease that may take months for you to recover from.—Boston Globe.

CALIFORNIA ARCHITECT.

THE CALIFORNIA ARCHITECT

An Historical Gun.

Yuma Free Press.

A very curious and historical fire-arm has just come to light in this town. Some time ago William C. Barney, our gunsmith, bought a lot of material and arms in San Francisco. Last Sunday he sold to Mr. John Marks a double barreled gun which was a part of the lot. The latter gentleman cleaned and examined it. One of the barrels is a smooth bore and the other is rifled, the latter having a hair trigger. They are made of Damascus steel. The strap-band is lifted by pushing a spring and a bayonet is run out, springing into place of itself. Upon the gun engraved in gold, is the lone star of Texas, and the name of General Joseph Green. There is also a golden eagle set in the stock. The gun is loaded at the breech by a curious piece of mechanism, and, although it carries a very large charge of powder there is hardly any recoil in the discharge. It is a valuable relic of the struggle of the Lone Star State for independence. General Joe Green was killed in the last war and we are not aware whether he left any kin. This old gun could be sold to them a grand prize. It also deserves a place among the archives of Texas.

The Mexican Railway Project.

Probably very few realize the magnitude and importance of the project now being worked in the Southwest by the union of American and Mexican capitalists and engineers. The Mexican National Railroad is not a simple line between two points, but is a really a system of roads designed to open up the whole country. What may be called the trunk line leads north from the City of Mexico to Laredo, where the connection is to be with the American system of railroads and west from the capital to Manzanilla on the Pacific coast, which latter line will complete a short line from ocean to ocean, to carry freight and passengers from Vera Cruz to Manzanilla. An immense amount of preliminary work has been and is being done in surveying and laying out lines and actual work of construction. It is not improbable that within two years the City of Mexico will be connected by rail with all parts of the United States, and a new transcontinental line open to traffic.

False Economy.

Food and Health. Many people think it economy to buy cheap food, and save in articles which really are more necessary than they believe. There are people who really grudge ten cents for vegetables because they say that it is too dear; others will restrict their children in milk; others will buy no fish, because their is nothing in it; others will deny the little ones a refreshing orange or banana, and others will never have a pudding on the table.

Meat and bread, hot cakes, chops and steaks they call cheap, because it is real food. These people forget that variety really nourishes the body and makes up for that food which can alone supply our requirements. Besides that there is no real economy in it. Meat and bread cost more than vegetables and puddings combined with them. The former leave you craving for something else, which you have to satisfy, while a good mixed meal supplies all your wants.

Art and Politics.

Boston Herald. We shall never be able to rid ourselves of the opprobrium of having no art culture while we erect statues after the manner of the Farragut memorial. It is immaterial whether this is good or bad work. The fact that no steps were taken to insure its being good is enough for our consideration. We read that models were contributed by twenty one sculptors from all parts of the world, and that from these the design of Mrs. Winnie Ream Hoxie was selected. This design was the choice of the three judges, Farragut, Gen. Sherman and ex-Secretary of the Navy Robinson. The make-up of this committee tells the whole story. In what other country would it be possible to find a committee having the audacity to sit in judgement on works of art without one practical artist of the number, to say nothing of connoisseurs? The idea is simply ridiculous.

A Funeral Wanted.

A Georgia letter says: "Robert Toombs still lives at a town north of Atlanta, and is a considerable proprietor of Atlanta real estate. His private example and frothy teachings have an evil influence on the young men—the more so that he has a certain fantastic brilliancy of expression, which encourages the growth of roddies. When he is drunk—a common matter—he will stand and talk to ladies, swearing the while, telling them to rejoice in being rebels, and saying that he will never take the oath of allegiance to the American Government, etc. Being rich, the young fellows get the idea that all this coarseness and these sentiments are portions of the natural genius of the man and have assisted to make his money. There is no funeral more ardently to be desired by the respectable people of Atlanta than that of Bob Toombs."
